The Gerontological Society of America® (GSA) Publications Committee is seeking nominations for the position of Editor-in-Chief of The Gerontologist.

The Gerontologist provides a multidisciplinary perspective on human aging by publishing research and analysis on applied social issues. It informs the broad community of disciplines and professions involved in understanding the aging process and providing care to older people. Articles should include a conceptual framework and testable hypotheses. Implications for policy or practice should be highlighted. The Gerontologist publishes quantitative and qualitative research and encourages manuscript submissions of various types including: research articles, intervention research, review articles, measurement articles, forums, and brief reports. Book and media reviews, International Spotlights, and award-winning lectures are commissioned by the editors.

The 4-year term will become effective January 1, 2019. The Editor-in-Chief makes appointments to the journal’s Editorial Board and develops policies in accordance with the scope statement prepared by the GSA Publications Committee and approved by the GSA Council. The Editor-in-Chief works with reviewers and has the final responsibility for the acceptance of articles for his/her journal using the online platform, ScholarOne Manuscripts. The editorship is a voluntary position with an Institutional allowance. Candidates must be dedicated to developing a premier scientific journal.

Nominations and applications may be made by the candidate or others, and must be accompanied by the candidate’s curriculum vitae and a letter of intent.

All nominations and applications must be emailed to Judie Lieu at jlieu@geron.org by March 31, 2018.
